OCEAN CITY Letters page

Dear Reader,

First, a big thank you!

Thank you for buying the first issue of what I am hoping will become an ongoing series. I have a lot of exciting ideas for the book and I would like to welcome you to the humble beginnings of Ocean City.

Making a comic book series is no small task. Like everyone else working in small press, you have to balance your time between doing your day job, making money and then getting your passion project up and running. So on that note, since I am doing all of this by myself. The book will have a little down time between each issue while I finish them up. Hopefully you will stick with the series and follow us from issue to issue.

Like all good comic books. I want a little section in the back of the book to chat to readers. So I am starting this letters page to encourage any of my readers, followers, fellow artists and anyone who has enjoyed the book, to drop me a little note or mail letting me know what you thought. What you expect from the series? What you enjoyed/hated. Or anything related to the book. I can always be reached on Colgriff84@Gmail.com. So let the letters fly.

Anyways, I hope you enjoy the first issue. I had a ton of fun making it and can't wait for you guys to see what happens next.

Now for the Thank You's:

This book wasn't possible without a few people. So I want to say thank you.
